

David C. Leach, MD Award Recipients 2011

Colleen Nugent, MD, MS

Pediatrics
University at Buffalo
Buffalo, NY

Nominators had this to say:

“As a third year medical student, she had been inducted (by her peers) into the Dr. Richard T. Sarkin Chapter of the Arnold P. Gold Humanism Society...With wonderful positive energy, Colleen has brought Kenneth B. Schwartz Center Rounds to WCHOB and despite a hectic intern year, she has developed, planned and hosted three humanism sessions for residents.”

“Colleen has diligently worked to bring Schwartz Rounds to the Women and Children's Hospital of Buffalo. These rounds are a multi-disciplinary rounds that serve as an opportunity for caretakers to communicate about the multiple emotional aspects of caring for patients. These rounds have become an effective environment for promoting teamwork, team communication and interdisciplinary collaboration on patient and family care.”
